ruralCOMMONS

PROJECT SNAPSHOT

The living heritage of rural places: cultural commons

Horizon Europe project · Türkiye pilot, Karaburun

zeytince.org

About the project

ruralCOMMONS is a research project funded under the European Union's Horizon Europe programme, focusing on intangible cultural heritage in rural areas. Zeytince is one of the project partners.

ruralCOMMONS treats intangible cultural heritage not only as something to preserve, but as a living body of knowledge that supports agroecological transition, strengthens communities and shapes a shared future.

KEY FACTS

PROGRAMME
Horizon Europe · Cluster 2

DURATION
Four years

TÜRKIYE PILOT
Zeytince and İzmir Institute of Technology (IZTECH)

PILOT AREA
Karaburun, İzmir

FOCUS
Cultural commons, agroecology, community resilience

ZEYTINCE'S ROLE

- One of the project partners.
- Connects intangible cultural heritage with agroecology in Karaburun's olive villages.
- Runs the Türkiye pilot in Karaburun together with IZTECH.
- Documents and discusses cultural commons together with the community.

Connecting intangible cultural heritage with agroecology and community resilience in Karaburun's olive villages.

zeytince.org

ruralCOMMONS is funded under the European Union's Horizon Europe programme.
Zeytince Ekolojik Yaşamı Destekleme Derneği · zeytince.org